November 2013

FROM THE DIRECTOR

At the time of this writing we have been occupying the new building for over two months. In some ways it seems a long time since we moved, we have welcomed many new friends and have celebrated our first Thanksgiving in our new environment. In other ways it seems we are still settling in. I am grateful for the support of our residents, families, tenants and staff as we journey together through this year of firsts. We have learned that we can celebrate our traditional holidays in a slightly different way, still honoring the residents we serve.

Our next exciting celebration will be the kick off to the Christmas season when we come together for the Christmas tea. A special thanks to Megan and the ladies auxiliary who are planning this special annual event. Please plan to join us on November 16. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the ladies auxiliary for their generous donation toward the soon to arrive art work in our new home.

November is also a time to reflect upon what a wonderful country we live in, and the freedom we experience in this land. Canada has always been known for its peaceful people and beautiful countryside. We are mindful of the many people who have made sacrifices for our great country.

"I am a Canadian, free to speak without fear, free to worship in my own way, free to stand for what I think right, free to oppose what I believe wrong, or free to choose those who shall govern my country. This heritage of freedom I pledge to uphold for myself and all mankind" John Diefenbaker

poppies blow
Between the crosses,
row on row,
That mark our place;
and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

Although a lot of work (and I mean a lot!), these special events are my favorite moments of the year. Knowing that our residents can come together with special friends and family and enjoy a wonderful meal and time of fellowship makes it all worth it. I always look forward to seeing residents get dressed up and to meeting new family members!

Like all of our events here in the new building, it was a learning experience! I hope that you enjoyed this event and our many special events throughout the year.
