HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

As the month of February approaches the stores fill up with red and pink themed decorations and hearts of every shape and texture. There are special menus in restaurant windows and jewelry stores are busy with the sales of sparkling trinkets. I believe it was Shakespeare who coined the phrase "much ado about nothing". Indeed, although some of these things above may be appreciated, is it really not more important to show your love each day of the year? At Tabor, we celebrate with those who are blessed with the special bond of love between two people and we give pause and respect to those who mourn their true Valentine. Valentine's Day can be a wonderful time to celebrate that special someone, and yet it can also be a very painful reminder of a lost loved one and the loneliness that ensues.

Love is so much more than romantic love though. There is the love of family and friendships, the love of a cause, that if you are lucky enough can become the passion behind career or volunteer choices. Tabor Manor's Mission statement starts off with the phrase, "servicing seniors with excellence, love and dignity". The love that is shown to our residents is evident in the staff choices made each day. Relationships are built within our Home; amongst residents, staff, family and volunteers. These relationships are what make Tabor a special place to call Home. There is another phrase that claims "Home is Where the Heart is". Truly we are honoured when you call Tabor Home.

FOR THE LOVE OF ART

Often times we hear stories from our residents that amaze, inspire and sometimes even surprise us. As an interdisciplinary team we often come across these stories and past interests and appreciate them, soon we will take the opportunity to celebrate them!

On Saturday February the 28th the Tabor Manor Therapeutic Recreation Team will be hosting an Art Show displaying and celebrating resident art from their past and present. From 9:30am-11:30am you are invited to tour the Great Room of 7 Tabor, enjoy resident art and meet the artists themselves!

Our For the Love of Art show will celebrate residents art from the past and present. Many of our current artists express themselves by way of Montessori programs. This event will support the Montessori program here at Tabor and will reveal a collaborative artwork piece that celebrates the uniqueness of each resident here at Tabor Manor.

Mementoes of this exciting event will be for sale and all funds raised will support the Montessori program here at Tabor Manor. Please consider attending this much anticipated event and invite your family and friends to come with you!

1 Corinthians 12:4-8 "Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."
